ORDERS ON THE CASE OF NARSINGH SINGH WHICH OCCURRED IN AUGUST 1899 IN THE SARAN DISTRICT IN BENGAL.

Nos. 1003—1014(Public), dated Simla, the 18th April 1900.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India in the Home Department.

READ—

Letter to the Government of Bengal, No. 1651, dated the 28th November 1899.

Letter from the Government of Bengal, No. 53J., dated the 2nd January 1900.

Letters from the Government of Bengal, Nos. 767J. and 1344J., dated the 12th February and the 7th March 1900, forwarding various reports, explanations and definitions.

Letter from the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, No. 1248, dated the 20th March 1900.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council has had under his consideration a case which occurred in August last in the Saran district, of which Chapra is the head-quarters, and which has attracted much public attention and comment. The salient facts, about which there seems to be little or no dispute, are briefly summarized below. At the time of their occurrence, Mr. Twidell, an officer of not quite five years' standing, was temporarily officiating as Magistrate and Collector of the district. Mr. Bradley, an officer of about the same service, was his District Superintendent of Police, and had for his assistant Mr. Corbett, a probationer, who had been for less than two years in the department. Mr. Simkins was the District Engineer. On the district staff was Maulvi Zakir Hossein, a Deputy Magistrate of 27 years' standing.

2. On the 19th August Mr. Corbett and Mr. Simkins went out to the village of Phulwaria, in order to supervise and obtain labour for the repair of certain embankments which protect the surrounding country from dangerous and destructive floods, and the responsibility for maintaining which lies upon the local landholders. In the village they met one Narsingh Singh, a police constable, on sick leave from Jalpaiguri. When required to assist the authorities, this man was insolent to Mr. Corbett, who assaulted him slightly. Narsingh Singh then ran at Mr. Corbett, who knocked him down in self-defence. The man then called upon the villagers, of whom a considerable number were standing round, to help him (lathi chalo), upon which Mr. Corbett thrashed him severely while he was down, and Mr. Simkins gave him several cuts with his cane. One of the villagers threatened Mr. Simkins with a lathi, but was disarmed by him.

3. On the next morning, which was a Sunday, Narsingh Singh attended at the Chapra hospital to be treated as an out-patient for a certain disease. The Civil Surgeon noticed that he had two black eyes, and, upon asking how he got them, was told that he had been beaten by the Assistant District Superintendent of Police. It appears that the occurrence of the previous day had been discussed in the station; and after leaving the hospital, the Civil Surgeon mentioned to both Mr. Corbett and Mr. Bradley that "Corbett's friend" was in the station. Mr. Bradley immediately sent an Inspector to find the man; but meanwhile Mr. Corbett had himself gone to the hospital, and found Narsingh Singh, whom he brought to Bradley's house. There Mr. Bradley gave him his choice between resigning and being prosecuted; and on his refusing to resign, the two police officers took him off to Mr. Twidell's house, where, after consultation with the latter, Mr. Corbett lodged a formal complaint against him under section 353, Indian Penal Code, of assault to deter a public servant from the discharge of his duty, a non-compoundable but bailable offence, for which the police may arrest without warrant. Mr. Twidell accepted the complaint and directed a prosecution, and Narsingh Singh was forthwith placed in confinement. Before the formal complaint was presented, Mr. Bradley had again asked Narsingh Singh whether he would resign, and the latter had agreed to do so; but Mr. Bradley then refused to accept his resignation.

4. Narsingh Singh was tried by Maulvi Zakir Hossein, and eventually convicted of abetment of simple assault (section 352), and of insult intended to provoke a breach of the peace (section 504), and sentenced to two months' rigorous imprisonment. At one stage of the trial Mr. Bradley was allowed to assist in the prosecution while sitting on the Bench; and the Deputy Magistrate twice consulted the District Magistrate regarding its conduct, on one occasion in consultation with Mr. Bradley also. Narsingh Singh appealed to the Sessions Judge, Mr. Pennell, and his counsel filed, together with his appeal, an affidavit containing serious allegations against the officers concerned with regard to their conduct in the case. Mr. Pennell called upon Mr. Twidell and, through him, upon Maulvi Zakir Hossein, for an explanation in respect of these allegations. Mr. Twidell declined to submit any explanation; and thereupon Mr. Pennell summoned Messrs. Twidell, Bradley, Corbett, and Simkins, the Maulvi and the Civil Surgeon, as witnesses under section 428 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Finally, he accepted the appeal, quashed the conviction, and set aside the sentence. And in his judgment he commented at great length and with great severity upon the conduct of all concerned.

5. The Government of Bengal then took up the matter. The conclusions at which His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor arrived, and the action which he took, are set forth in the following extracts from the second letter read in the preamble:—

“Mr. Pennell's strictures on the conduct of the officers are substantially as follow:—

- (1) that Mr. Corbett did not receive from Narsingh Singh provocation justifying the violence which he used;
- (2) that the prosecution of Narsingh Singh was instituted because it was feared that he would otherwise himself proceed criminally against Messrs. Corbett and Simkins;
- (3) that Mr. Twidell very improperly interfered by repeatedly discussing the case against Narsingh Singh with Maulvi Zakir Hossein in the course of the trial; and
- (4) that Maulvi Zakir Hossein permitted himself to be influenced by Mr. Twidell, and convicted Narsingh Singh on entirely inadequate grounds.

“Both Mr. Twidell and Maulvi Zakir Hossein have asserted their innocence of any improper motive throughout the proceedings in which they were concerned. It is unnecessary to refer to their explanations in detail or to analyse the evidence on which the comments of the Sessions Judge were based. The Lieutenant-Governor's opinion on the various points is clear, and I am now to state it for the information of the Government of India. The orders issued by Mr. Twidell for the repair of the embankments were dictated by a laudable desire on the part of a district officer to prevent the risk of inundations, which would have caused serious loss to the people. It lay on the zamindars and villagers to do what was needed to strengthen the embankments, any wages required for work done being payable by the zamindars, and the deputation of Messrs. Corbett and Simkins to the spot to induce the people to assist was legitimate. The Lieutenant-Governor considers, however, that in the altercation and fracas which took place with Narsingh Singh Mr. Corbett was seriously to blame. He was hasty in first striking the man, and subsequently gave him a severe beating. The man was in a bad state of health, and His Honour is unable to accept the plea that the provocation he gave in any manner justified the treatment to which he was subjected. With regard to the prosecution instituted against Narsingh Singh, the Lieutenant-Governor condemns the conduct of Messrs. Corbett and Bradley, and of Mr. Twidell in particular. Mr. Twidell acted with extreme want of judgment and impropriety in ordering the prosecution, being aware specially that Narsingh Singh had been beaten for his alleged opposition to Messrs. Corbett and Simkins. In the course of the trial also Mr. Twidell's action was open to most serious comment. Subordinate Magistrates may sometimes seek the advice of the District Magistrates in difficult cases, while preserving their own judicial independence. Such consultations between judicial officers are presumably not unknown even in higher Courts. In the present case, however, Mr. Twidell had himself directly ordered the prosecution, and the impropriety of his entering into any discussion of the case with the Deputy Magistrate should have been patent to him. As regards Maulvi Zakir Hossein, the Lieutenant-Governor considers that his conduct of the trial betrayed lamentable weakness of judgment and character. The conviction of Narsingh Singh was bad, and the sentence passed altogether excessive for the offence charged. Mr. Bradley had a smaller share in the case than the officers already named, but the Lieutenant-Governor regards him also as deserving of censure for aiding in the institution of the prosecution against Narsingh Singh and for taking an unnecessarily prominent part in the conduct of the prosecution during the trial.

“The Lieutenant-Governor greatly regrets that the officers of the Saran district should, by their proceedings in this case, have brought themselves under the condemnation which must thus be passed upon them. Serious notice of their conduct is necessary, and His Honour has issued the following orders. Mr. Twidell will be barred from promotion to an Officiating Magistrate-Collectorship for one year. Mr. Corbett, who has become entitled to confirmation as an Assistant Superintendent of Police of the second grade, on completely passing the departmental examinations, will not be confirmed for the same period. An expression of the Lieutenant-Governor's severe displeasure will be conveyed to Mr. Bradley: and Maulvi Zakir Hossein will also be admonished. The latter is an old officer who has hitherto borne a blameless reputation."

6. As soon as Mr. Pennell's judgment was brought to the notice of the Government of India, they requested the Bengal Government to furnish them with a full report upon the case. When that report was received, it appeared that the matter had not been completely dealt with, inasmuch as the action of all the parties concerned had not been equally considered. With regard to the judgment of the Sessions Judge, they thought it desirable to invite the opinion of the High Court of Calcutta and to enquire whether the Honourable Judges contemplated taking any action with regard to it. The Honourable Court has now replied that it "is of opinion that certain passages in the judgment are expressed in terms which the Judges cannot but regard as intemperate, and conspicuously wanting in that sense of dignity and self-restraint which ought to characterize judicial utterances," and that an expression of the disapproval of the Court has been communicated to Mr. Pennell.

7. The Governor-General in Council regards this case as one of unusual importance. It exemplifies in an aggravated, but typical, form several evils which from time to time force themselves upon the attention of Government, and which it is upon every ground of the utmost importance to restrain. The action of the executive and of the judicial officers has conduced to give to the facts a notoriety so great as to fall little short of a scandal, and to render it desirable that the Supreme Government should itself deal with the matter.

8. With regard to the fracas that occurred on the 19th August, the Governor-General in Council concurs in the conclusions of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor. Whatever the provocation received, Mr. Corbett's action in first assaulting Narsingh Singh was undignified and improper. And if, as appears to have been the case, he knocked him down in self-defence, his conduct in severely thrashing a man who lay at his mercy was lacking in any justification. In judging of his conduct, moreover, it is impossible to forget the fact that he was an English officer of Government; and that the position of such officers imposes upon them a very special responsibility towards the inhabitants of the country, in whose eyes they represent, each according to his degree, the Government of Her Majesty. It is incumbent upon any one so placed to exercise a very special self-restraint in his dealings with the people, and it is necessary that he should be judged in such matters by a specially strict standard.

9. But it is the proceedings which followed after the quarrel of the 19th August that constitute the really serious element in the case. On the 19th a very young officer lost his temper and his judgment, and thrashed a man who had been insolent to him and had attempted to attack him. On the 20th, if the conclusions of the Judge who heard Narsingh Singh's appeal are to be accepted, the Chief Magistrate of the district conspired with his two police officers to screen Mr. Corbett from the consequences of his fault, by prosecuting the man whom the latter had beaten for what was at most a merely technical offence, and for which ample, if not excessive, punishment had already been inflicted; while at a later stage, the District Magistrate and District Superintendent of Police brought improper influence to bear upon the Subordinate Magistrate who was trying the case. No more serious charge could be laid at the door of the officers charged with the administration of criminal police and justice in a district. The Governor-General in Council has therefore examined and considered the facts with the most scrupulous care, and the most anxious desire to do no injustice to any of the parties concerned; and the more so, because he gathers from the Lieutenant-Governor's silence on the point, that His Honour does not accept Mr. Pennell's conclusions, at any rate as to the conspiracy.

10. The result of this examination has been to leave upon the mind of the Governor-General in Council the impression that Messrs. Bradley and Corbett were not so much animated in laying a complaint against Narsingh Singh by a desire to vindicate their outraged authority or to uphold the discipline of the police force, as they were by a desire to put further pressure upon Narsingh

Singh. Such conduct on their part amounted, in the opinion of the Governor-General in Council, to little short of persecution, and was a flagrant abuse of the authority with which as police officers they were entrusted.

11. As regards Mr. Twidell's part in the matter, Mr. Pennell's assertion that he was a party to a conspiracy in order to shield his friends, would, if it were accepted, involve a culpability on his part by so much greater than theirs as his office and responsibilities were higher. The circumstances are not free from doubt. But the Governor-General in Council, while holding that Mr. Twidell's conduct was both unwise and improper, is prepared to believe that in directing the prosecution he acted in good faith.

12. His subsequent action, in advising the Deputy Magistrate as to the conduct of the case, was unfortunately not less indiscreet. The Governor-General in Council agrees with His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in thinking that Subordinate Magistrates may properly and usefully seek the advice of the District Magistrate on questions arising in cases that are before them, without in any way forfeiting or impairing their judicial independence. But it is essential that the District Magistrate should scrupulously abstain from such consultation, whenever there is possible room for the suggestion that any personal element may colour his advice. The question of the union of judicial and executive functions is now under the consideration of the Government of India, and is one upon which much discussion has already been expended. It will be conceded, however, by all parties that when the two functions are united in the same hands it behoves those who exercise them to abstain, not only from any abuse, but also from any semblance of abuse, of the powers thus conferred upon them, and to avoid, with the most scrupulous care, any action that may give reasonable ground for the allegation that the objects of the executive are improperly permitted to influence the independence of the judicial branch of the administration. Both branches have one common object—the good government of the country, and the peace and prosperity of the people; and it is regrettable that there should be either confusion or collision of functions in aiming at this end.

13. The Government of India do not propose to interfere with the orders which the Bengal Government have passed in the case of the executive officers concerned. The punishment inflicted, if not adequate to the offence as it is regarded by the Governor-General in Council, is at least substantial. And His Excellency in Council cannot but regard the lamentable occurrence which he has been discussing, as in some degree due to the fact that there was no officer of age and experience present in the district staff, whose more mature judgment might have prevented them. That this was so is explained by the Bengal Government to have been due partly to an unavoidable accident, but mainly to the regrettable shorthandedness of the executive staff, which is now rapidly disappearing in consequence of increased recruitment.

14. There remains the action of Mr. Pennell, the Sessions Judge who heard Narsingh Singh's appeal. The Governor-General in Council has read with entire agreement the opinion expressed by the High Court upon the nature of Mr. Pennell's judgment. It appears to His Excellency in Council to have been affected by an animus which there was little attempt to conceal. The issue before Mr. Pennell was whether Narsingh Singh had or had not been rightly convicted and sentenced. But it is clear that Mr. Pennell was even more concerned with the conduct of the executive officers than with the guilt or innocence of Narsingh Singh, and that those officers who had been summoned as witnesses virtually occupied the position of accused, though put on oath to criminate themselves. While it is inevitable that a Judge should comment upon the conduct of the executive in so far as it bears upon the issue which he is trying, and while it is proper that he should bring to the notice of superior authority any abuse of power which may seem to him to have taken place, there is yet a corresponding responsibility imposed upon him for the discreet and proper use of the liberty of inquiry and of comment which is essential to the due discharge of judicial duties. In the present case the Governor-General in Council is in concurrence with the High Court in thinking that this discretion was altogether ignored.

15. Such are the conclusions to which the Governor-General in Council has been led regarding a case which, while discreditable to the majority of the officers concerned, has also cast discredit upon the Government to which those officers belong. Cases of such a serious nature are fortunately of rare occurrence; but when they do occur the authority and prestige of Government are materially weakened. It is to be hoped that the public attention which has been called to the present incident, and the notice which the Government of India have been compelled to take of the matter, may prevent the recurrence of similar events in the future, and may be productive of good in vindicating that high standard to which it is essential that British administration in this country should steadily conform.

No. 1257.—The Royal Warrant for the institution of the Kaisar-i-Hind Medal is, by the direction of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General, published for general information:

VICTORIA BY THE GRACE OF GOD OF THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND QUEEN, DEFENDER OF THE FAITH, EMPRESS OF INDIA.

To all to whom these presents shall come.

Greeting.—WHEREAS We, taking into Our Royal consideration that there do not exist adequate means whereby We can reward important and useful services rendered to Us in Our Indian Empire in the advancement of the public interests of Our said Empire, and taking also into consideration the expediency of distinguishing such services by some mark of Our Royal favour: Now for the purpose of attaining an end so desirable as that of thus distinguishing such services aforesaid, We have instituted and created, and by these presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do institute and create, a new Decoration,—to be designated as hereinafter described,—and We are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following Rules and Ordinances for the Government of the same which shall from henceforth be inviolably observed and kept:

Firstly.—It is ordained that this Decoration shall henceforth be styled and designated "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India."

Secondly.—It is ordained that any person without distinction of race, occupation, position, or sex, shall be eligible for this Decoration who shall have distinguished himself (or herself) by important and useful service in the advancement of the public interest in India.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that there shall be two classes of the Decoration to be styled respectively "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India" of the First Class, and "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India" of the Second Class.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that awards of the Medal of the First Class shall be made by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under Our Sign Manual and countersigned by One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and such awards shall only be made on a recommendation to Us by Our Secretary of State for India.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that awards of the Medal of the Second Class shall be made by Our Governor-General of India for the time being.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that the Medal shall consist of an oval shaped Badge or Decoration—in gold for the First Class and in silver for the Second Class—with Our Royal Cypher in the centre on one side and on the reverse the words "Kaisar-i-Hind for Public Service in India," and that it shall be suspended on the left breast by a dark blue ribbon.

Seventhly.—It is ordained that the names of those persons to whom a Medal of either class may be awarded shall be published in the Gazette of India and in the Gazette of the Local Government under the jurisdiction of which the service was rendered, and shall be entered in all Civil and Official lists, and that a registry of such names shall be kept in the Office of the Home Department of the Government of India.

Eighthly.—It is ordained that if any one, after having received either of the Medals, again renders such service as, if he had not received such Medal, would have entitled him to it, such further service shall be recorded by a bar attached to the ribbon by which the Medal is suspended: and for every such additional service an additional bar may be added.

Ninthly.—In order to make such additional provisions as shall effectually preserve pure this honourable Decoration, it is ordained that if any person on whom the Medal of the First Class is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which in Our Judgment disqualifies him for the same, his name shall, by an especial Warrant under Our Sign Manual, to be countersigned by One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, be forthwith erased from the lists of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred and his Medal forfeited and returned to Us, Our Heirs and Successors: and in the case of those who have been awarded Medals of the Second Class, such erasure of their names from the lists of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred and forfeiture of their Medals shall be effected under the Order of Our Governor-General of India for the time being, to whom their Medals shall be returned. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall, before receiving the same, enter into an engagement to return the same, if his name shall be erased as aforesaid.

Provided that We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall at all times have power to restore the Medal of the First Class to any person who may have been deprived of it when circumstances render such restoration just and expedient, and that in like circumstances Our Governor-General of India for the time being shall have power by his Order to restore the Medal of the Second Class to any person who may have been deprived of it.

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Regulations or any part thereof by a Notification under Our Royal Sign Manual.

GIVEN at Our Court at St. James's this tenth day of April One thousand nine hundred and in the sixty-third year of Our Reign.

Any objection to the proposed order or suggestions thereon should be transmitted in writing to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department by the 2nd day of July 1900, on which date the proposed scheme will be taken into further consideration.

Draft of a scheme for the administration of the proposed Trust.

1. The Trust shall be known as the Indian People's Famine Trust.
2. The purpose of the Trust shall be the alleviation by grants of money or otherwise of general distress caused by failure or destruction of the crops or by any calamity of like nature either in British India or in any Native States.
3. The income of the securities so as aforesaid vested in the Treasurer and of such other securities (if any) as may at any time hereafter be in like manner so vested for the purpose of the Trust shall be administered by a Board of Management (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") consisting of the following persons:—
 - (a) Five persons appointed by the Governor-General in Council, of whom three shall be in the executive service of the Government.
 - (b) Five persons appointed, respectively, by the Local Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and the Punjab.
 - (c) Two persons appointed, respectively, by the Agents to the Governor-General in Rajputana and Central India.
 - (d) One person appointed by His Highness the Maharaja of Jaipur for the time being.
 - (e) Any persons becoming life-members under clause 14.

The Governor-General in Council shall also appoint the Chairman of the Board from among the members.

4. Each appointed member of the Board shall hold office during the pleasure of the authority by whom he has been appointed.

Provided that a member who is absent from India for a period exceeding eight months shall cease to be a member of the Board, but may, notwithstanding, be re-appointed thereto on a vacancy hereafter occurring. Provided also that any member may resign his place at the Board by notice in writing addressed to the Chairman.

5. During any vacancy in the Board the continuing members may act as if no vacancy had occurred.

6. The Chairman may convene meetings of the Board at such times and places as he may consider necessary and convenient for the transaction of business, and at all meetings four members shall form a quorum.

7. The Board shall frame bye-laws for the regulations of its proceedings, the maintenance of accounts, and the like.

8. No grant for the relief of distress shall, at any time, be made by the Board unless and until the existence of general and severe privation over a considerable area has been notified to it by the Governor-General in Council.

9. When the existence of distress has been so notified to the Board, the Board, after considering all the information regarding it which may have been transmitted by the Governor-General in Council or by the Local Government or Native State in which the distress exists, may, if it think fit, make a grant for relief.

10. Before paying over the amount of any such grant, the Board shall satisfy itself that the money granted will be expended in one or more of the following ways, namely:—

Firstly.—In supplementing the subsistence ration of the Famine Codes by the addition of small comforts, whether of food or of clothing, for the aged or infirm, for patients in hospitals, for children and the like.

Secondly.—In providing for the maintenance of orphans.

Thirdly.—In relieving pardah nashin women and persons in distressed circumstances who by social or caste conditions are debarred from applying for State relief and from submitting to the ordinary tests of distress prescribed in the Famine Codes.

Fourthly.—In helping to re-establish impoverished agriculturists and others who have lost substantially the whole of their capital in the period of distress, and thereby giving them a fresh start in life.

Fifthly.—In providing for any object specially recommended to the Board by the Governor-General in Council.

11. When a grant is made for relief by the Board, the Board shall, unless otherwise authorised by the Governor-General in Council, pay over the grant for expenditure as follows:—

(1) To a Central Relief Committee, if a General Relief Committee shall have been established for the time being to administer Famine Charitable Relief funds in all parts of India.

(2) To a Relief Committee established in the Province in which distress prevails, should no Central Relief Committee have been established.

(3) If neither a Central Relief Committee nor a Provincial Relief Committee shall have been established, then to such person or persons as the Board may appoint in the locality where the distress prevails, the Board having first satisfied itself that proper arrangements for the distribution of relief through trustworthy agents have been made.

12. (1) Subject to any general or special orders which the Governor-General in Council may issue in this behalf, the Board may at its discretion invest any monies in its possession, and not being immediately required for expenditure on relief, in or upon the securities specified in section 4 (3) of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, and may vary and realise such investments.

(2) Any monies so invested shall be invested in the joint names of not less than two of the members of the Board.

(3) Provided that the Board may at any time apply to the Governor-General in Council that any securities for money so held may be vested in the Treasurer on the same trusts as the original Endowment Fund and as part of the endowment.

13. The Board may accept for the purpose of addition to the original Endowment Fund any securities for money of the kinds specified in section 4 (3) of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, not being of smaller amount in each case than Rs. 10,000 in face value, that may be so offered to it for acceptance by any person or persons. The Board shall notify each such donation to the Governor-General in Council, and shall jointly with the donor apply that the said securities be vested in the Treasurer on the same trusts as the original Endowment Fund and as part of the endowment.

14. Any person who thus subscribes a sum of not less than Rs. 5,00,000 shall become a life member of the Board.

15. (1) The Board may accept from a Central or Provincial Charitable Relief Committee the unexpended balances of any monies at the Committee's disposal which the Committee on terminating its operations may wish to make over to the Board for expenditure hereafter on the relief of distress. Such monies shall not be added to the original Endowment Fund, but shall be retained by the Board in current account or temporarily invested in the manner specified in sub-clauses (1) and (2) of clause 12.

(2) Subject to any general or special orders which the Governor-General in Council may issue in this behalf, the Board may similarly accept and dispose of any sums of money of less amount than Rs. 10,000 that may be presented to it from any other source.

16. FINANCE AND COMMERCE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

ACCOUNTS AND FINANCE.
PUBLIC DEBT.

No. 2666.

Simla, the 6th June, 1900.

THREE-AND-A-HALF PER CENT LOAN OF 1900-1.

His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor General in Council has resolved to borrow three hundred lakhs of rupees for the public service in the following manner :

2. Promissory Notes will be issued for the said amount, bearing interest at the rate of Three-and-a-half Per Centum Per Annum, payable half-yearly on the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December. The notes will be in the form annexed to this Notification, and they will not be discharged before the 31st day of December 1920, nor until the expiration of three months after notice of payment to be published in the Government Gazette.

Tenders.

3. Tenders for the whole or any part of the said amount of Rs. 3,00,00,000 will be received by the Comptroller General from this date to noon of Wednesday, the 4th July next. Tenders must be for sums of 100 Rupees or 300 Rupees or multiples of those sums.

4. Each tender must be addressed, in the form annexed to this Notification, to the Comptroller General, Calcutta, and enclosed in a closed cover, superscribed "Tender for the Three-and-a-half Per Cent Loan." If the tenderer is not resident in India, he must name an agent resident in India to whom an allotment-certificate may be issued, if any part of the loan is allotted to such tenderer.

NOTE.—Tenders made in accordance with these instructions will also be received by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore, on account of the Comptroller General, Calcutta, on the 3rd July and up to the local time corresponding to 12 o'clock in Calcutta on the 4th July; provided that—

- (a) they are delivered personally or by clerk or messenger at the Accountant General's Office (where a receipt will be given for them);
- (b) they are made on printed forms, to be obtained at the same office or at the local Presidency Bank;
- (c) each tender is for not less than Rs. 10,000;
- (d) the deposit is either a promissory note or a Treasury Receipt from the local office of the Presidency Bank, or a cheque on a local Bank in favour of the Accountant General;
- (e) the amount of the tender is made payable either in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore; and the Accountant General will return deposits on non-accepted tenders, and will issue allotment-certificates so far as the tenders are payable in Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore.

5. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas: a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered in some other terms—as, for example, at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, or at the average of the accepted tenders—will be rejected as null and void.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna: if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

Deposits.

7. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit of not less than one-hundredth, or, if the tender be for less than five lakhs of rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. The deposit must be in one of the following forms: (a) a receipt for the amount from the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal, or Madras, or Bombay, or one of their Branches, or from an officer in charge of some Public Treasury, or (b) a cheque drawn in favour of the Comptroller General on a Bank in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, or (c) Government Promissory Notes¹ standing in the name of, or endorsed to, the tenderer or the person making the deposit.

¹It is particularly requested that such Promissory Notes may NOT be endorsed to the Comptroller General.

8. (a) Deposits, not being promissory notes, will, in the case of accepted tenders, be credited proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender, and will bear interest for the purpose of clause 16 below from the date of the opening of tenders. When a tender is not accepted in full, the deposits, when they are not in the form of promissory notes, will be credited as far as possible proportionately in even tens of rupees in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of it. If any allotment-certificate is not fully taken up, the deposit credited in respect of it will be forfeited.

(b) Promissory notes deposited in respect of any accepted tender will be held until all the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender are paid up, and will, if the allotment-certificates are not fully taken up, be appropriated by the Government and cancelled.

Opening of Tenders.

9. The Governor-General in Council reserves the right to declare, on or before the 27th June, the minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted. If not so declared, the said minimum rate will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller General, and, before the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected only because it is below the recorded minimum.

10. Tenders will be opened publicly by the Comptroller General at the Treasury Buildings, Calcutta, at noon (Calcutta time), on Wednesday, the 4th July next, and those received under the terms of the note under clause 4 will be similarly opened by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore at the local time corresponding to noon, Calcutta time, on the same day; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 12.

11. Tenders at rates not below the minimum rate will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate. The amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders; provided that no allotment will be issued if the amount distributable on any tender is less than Rs. 100: preference will however be given to small tenders, not exceeding Rs. 2,000, at the lowest rate, such tenders receiving allotments in full as far as possible.

Allotment-Certificates.

12. To each tenderer (or to his agent) whose tender is accepted in whole or in part such number of allotment-certificates as may be necessary to make up the aggregate amount allotted to him will be issued by the Comptroller General¹ as soon as possible after the 4th July; and an alphabetical list of the names of those to whom such allotment-certificates are issued will be posted for general information at the Head Offices of the Banks of Bengal, Madras and Bombay.

¹ For tenders received by the Accountant General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, and payable at those places, the Accountant General will issue the allotment-certificates.

13. If the allotment made on any tender is less than Rs. 3,000, then the whole of the allotment-certificates (after credit of the deposit under clause 8 (a)) will be made payable upon the 20th August.

Otherwise the whole amount of each allotment will be divided into three instalments as follows:

Instalment I.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent, but not exceeding 35 per cent, payable upon the 20th July:

Instalment II.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent, but not exceeding 35 per cent, payable upon the 20th August:

Instalment III.—The balance payable upon the 12th September:
and allotment-certificates will be issued for each instalment separately.

But the whole or any part of any accepted tender may be paid at any time after receipt of the allotment-certificates.

The words "as near as convenient" refer to the necessity for making each instalment an exact multiple of Rs. 100.

14. Any allotment-certificate will, on application to the Comptroller General, be exchanged for an equivalent amount of allotment-certificates of smaller denominations; provided that if any payment (beyond the deposit) is recorded upon the cancelled certificate, it can be taken against, and recorded upon, only one of the certificates issued in exchange.

15. Payment of any allotment-certificate may be made to the account of the Government in the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal or Madras or Bombay, or in any Branch of these Banks, or into any Public Treasury or Treasuries in India which may be named in the tender in respect of which it was issued. Receipts for such payments will be given by the banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, or their Branches, or by the officers in charge of the Government Treasuries at which payment is made, by encasement upon the relative certificate.

Issue of Promissory Notes.

16. (a) When any allotment-certificate is fully paid up, the holder will, on presenting it duly receipted at the place where it was paid, obtain from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, promissory notes of such values as he may desire (each note being in even hundreds and not less than Rs. 100), bearing interest from 31st December 1900, and he will also receive interest at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent per annum from the dates on which he may have made payment till the 30th of December 1900.

(b) Or he may, at his option, by paying interest at the said rate from 30th June 1900 to the dates on which he may have made payment, obtain promissory notes as above, bearing interest from 30th June 1900.

1. The fifth general election of Ward Commissioners under the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1888, as amended by section 42 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899, shall take place on 14th March, 1900.
2. The polling shall take place, at such stations as the Chairman may determine, as soon as the wards for which contests will take place in pursuance of section 31 of the said Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1888 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), are known. Notice of the stations so determined shall be given not later than the 10th March, by advertisement in the Municipal Office and in at least two daily newspapers.
3. The Commissioners shall appoint a polling officer to preside at each station, and as many assistant polling officers as they may think requisite, and may pay to each officer so appointed such reasonable remuneration for his services as they may think fit.
4. The Chairman shall supply to each polling officer a sufficient number of copies of so much of the revised list of voters published under section 22 of the said Act as may relate to the wards for which such polling officer is appointed to take votes, and no vote shall be received by the polling officer or his assistants unless the name of the voter is entered in such list. The Chairman shall also furnish the polling officer with the names of the candidates for each ward as published under section 31 of the said Act; and no vote shall be received in favour of any person other than one of such candidates.
5. All votes must be given personally at the poll on forms to be provided by the Chairman at the polling stations. Separate forms easily distinguishable shall be provided for each candidate; and the voter, unless he declares himself unable to write, shall write in his own hand, in the presence of the polling officer or one of his assistants, his own name, the name of the candidate for whom he votes, and the number of votes given for him. If any voter declares himself unable to write, the said names and number shall be written at his dictation by the polling officer or one of his assistants, and such polling officer or assistant shall in that case append his own signature to the form.

6. The Chairman shall circulate to the voters of all wards for which there is to be a poll in pursuance of section 31 of the said Act, as amended by sub-section (2) of section 42 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899, a post-card containing in English the name of the voter, the number of votes he is entitled to give, the names of the candidates for his ward, the polling station, and such other directions as the Chairman may think fit. Such post-cards shall be posted not less than two nor more than seven days before the date of the election.

7. Every such post-card shall also advise the addressee to bring the card with him to the poll as a help to identification, and, if so brought, it shall be attached to the voting paper.

8. If a voter gives some of his votes to one candidate and others to one or more other candidates, he shall fill up a separate voting paper for each candidate for whom he votes.

9. It shall be the duty of the polling officer or one of his assistants to satisfy himself—

- (1) that the name of the voter is entered in the list referred to in rule 4;
- (2) that the voting paper is filled up in the manner prescribed in rule 5;
- (3) that the name of the candidate voted for corresponds with the form assigned for such candidate;
- (4) that the post-card, if brought by the voter, is attached to his voting paper or one of his voting papers; and
- (5) that the voter has not given more votes than he is entitled to under the law.

10. No objection shall be taken at the polling station to the name of any voter entered in the list, or to the number of votes assigned to him; but, if any objection is taken to the identity of any voter, it shall be recorded on the back of the voting paper by the polling officer or his assistant.

11. If any voter gives more votes than he is entitled to, and the mistake escapes detection till after the voter has left the poll, a sufficient equal number of votes shall be deducted from the votes for each candidate voted for, so as to bring the number of votes within the number allotted to the voter.

Illustration.—A, being entitled to 6 votes, gives 8 votes to X; 2 shall be deducted.

B, being entitled to 4 votes, gives 5 to X and 3 to Y; 3 votes shall be allowed to X and 1 to Y.

12. The polling shall commence at 9 A.M. and close at 6 P.M., and if it cannot be finished for any ward by that hour, it shall be continued on the following day at 9 A.M. till finished.

13. The polling officer shall maintain order at the polling station, and all voters shall, while at or near the polling station, comply with all reasonable directions given by him for the preservation of order.

14. At the close of the poll for each ward, the polling officer shall forward to the Chairman the voting papers which have been received by him. Such papers shall, before being so forwarded, be duly sealed and secured, and the papers to which objections have been taken shall be sent separately from those to which no objections have been taken.

15. All claims or objections preferred under section 21 of the said Act shall be decided by the Chairman ward by ward, and he shall give such notice in the Municipal Office of the date of hearing for each ward as may be practicable. Such hearing shall be conducted with open doors, in order that any intending candidates or their agents may be present, and the Chairman shall, before disposing of any such claim or objection, hear any person present who asks to be heard.

16. After the publication of the revised list of voters in pursuance of section 22 of the said Act, further objections to the list may be taken on any of the following grounds:—

- (a) that the voter is dead or is a woman or has not attained the age of 21 years;
- (b) that the voter is the same as another person whose name is on the list, and that the name of the voter ought to appear only once on the list;
- (c) that the voter, though purporting to be authorised to vote under section 24 of the said Act on behalf of a Hindu joint-family, company, firm or other association of persons, is not duly so authorised.

17. Every objection referred to in rule 16 must be in writing, and must be delivered to the Chairman on or before the 13th March.

When a holding has already a water connection and a stop-cock and the owner or occupier of such holding refuses to deliver up the key of the stop-cock to the Municipal Commissioners, and give free access to the stop-cock, when it is within the premises, to the officer of the Municipality, the Commissioners may cut off the water from the holding by a stop-cock of their own until such time as the owner or occupier pays all expense incurred by the Municipality.

18. When an existing connection with a holding has no stop-cock attached to it, the owner or occupier of such holding shall provide a stop-cock and necessary fittings, and deliver over the key to the Municipal Commissioners. Should he decline to do this, the Municipal Commissioners may put on a stop-cock and cut off the water from the holding until the owner or occupier refunds the Municipal Commissioners all expenses incurred in affixing the stop-cock.

7. Each tender must be accompanied by an earnest deposit in Government promissory notes, Calcutta municipal debentures, currency-notes or cheques for not less than 3 per cent. of the amount tendered.

8. When a tender is accepted, the earnest deposit, when made in currency-notes or cheques, will be held as a payment in part of the amount tendered, and will bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum from the date of acceptance of the tender, provided that the whole amount tendered is paid up in the manner hereinafter prescribed; but no debenture will issue for the amount of the earnest deposit so long as the entire amount of the tender is not paid, but debentures may be issued for each instalment paid in full, the earnest deposit not being included in any but the last instalment.

9. The earnest deposits on tenders, which may not be accepted, will be returned on application, and no interest will be payable on such deposits. If an allotment after being made is not taken up, or the full amount allotted is not paid as hereinafter prescribed, the earnest deposit will be forfeited.

10. The rate at which a tender is made must be specified in rupees, or rupees and annas: but not in any fraction of an anna. If a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out, and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna. A tender in which the rate is not specified in rupees or rupees and annas will be rejected as null and void.

11. The whole amount of each allotment will be divided into two equal instalments as follows, payable into the Bank of Bengal:—

Instalment I. As near as possible to 50 per cent. payable on 18th January 1900.
Do. II. ditto 50 per cent * ditto 31st January 1900.

N.B.—The words "as near as possible" are used in this paragraph for the purpose of making each instalment an exact multiple of Rs. 100 for debentures in excess of Rs. 500.

12. Parties, whose tenders are accepted, will have the option of paying all or any of the instalments before the dates specified above, and will receive interest from the date of such payment.

13. Anticipation interest will be paid on all instalments from the respective dates on which such instalments are paid into the Bank of Bengal to the 30th April 1900.

14. In the case of two or more tenders at the same lowest rate accepted, a pro rata allotment will be made, but no such allotment will be issued if the amount thus allottable on any tender is less than Rs. 500.

15. A minimum having been previously fixed, tenders will be opened by the Loan Committee of the Commissioners, at 2-30 P.M., on Friday, the 5th January 1900, at the Municipal Office.
